Education — Fisheries Schools in South Kanara Dt — Supply of Library books — Expenditure — Sanctioned

Department of Industries and Commerce.

From
Sri S. Aruldoss, I.A.S.,
Addl. Director of Industries
and Commerce, Chepauk,
Madras 5.

To
The Secretary to Government,
Agriculture Department,
Madras 9.

No. R.C. 16526-X3/55 dated 21st Jan., 1956.

Sir,

Sub:- Education - Fisheries Schools in South Kanara District - Library books - Supply - sanction - Requested.

The existing library books available in the following fisheries schools are too inadequate to meet the requirements of these schools. Some more books are therefore necessary to meet the full requirements. The number of books required, cost of additional supply etc are furnished.

The number of books for each school has been fixed with reference to the number of children in the school and the cost of books has been worked out with reference to the books required. The Assistant Director of Fisheries, Mangalore states that the lists of books required have been examined and they are found useful and necessary for the schools. A sum of Rs. 260/- is required for the supply of library books indented for.

I request that Government may be pleased to sanction an expenditure of Rs. 260/- for the supply of Library books to the Fisheries Schools in South Kanara District.
